

dear sir, we feel that it is not quite troublesome for us consumers to make mobile calls abroad since someone calling america feels the same high prices on their mobile phones rates. Apparently, fcc has no right in intervening in foreign markets since it is itself a corrupt and inept body that can't manage its own affairs.